Finger Tab Feature & New Products

It takes a bit of time to break in a new tab and to get it feeling just right. February might be a good time to review your tab. Perhaps to try a new one or check you have a spare ready to swap in to your shooting as a back up. A couple of new models have just arrived which could be worth a look. Plus we have good selection of types, shapes and sizes so you can fit your hand. If you can get into our stores you can try a few for size.
